To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to confirm that the student and staff planners produced by The School Planner Company, a division of Mimeo.com, Inc., are products that are manufactured, sold and distributed exclusively by our company. There are no other like products available for purchase that utilize the same materials and provide the same service elements as The School Planner Company which include, but are not limited to, our fully customizable Library of Page Ideas and a dedicated Customer Account Manager to answer all customer inquiries and aid in design.

Our student and staff planners must be purchased directly by institutions from The School Planner Company, and there are no agents or dealers authorized to act on behalf of School Planner Company for the manufacturing of these products.

The School Planner Company is a leading producer of fully customized student and staff planners serving over 2.8 million students in 5,475 schools worldwide in 2017. For nearly two decades, The School Planner Company has been dedicated to working closely with schools to help evolve their school planners into a valuable learning resource that meets the unique needs of their stakeholders.

If you desire additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time or visit our website at www.schoolplanner.com. Thank you for your interest in our products.
